

Rhode Island is our smallest state, about 48 miles from North to South and 37 miles from East to West. Rhode Island's top agriculture products are dairy products and greenhouse and nursery plants and flowers.

